PRESENTATIONS

Recognition of Bill Simpson, 200th Career Win (1:19)

Dr. Davis, the Superintendent, congratulated Coach Bill Simpson for achieving his 200th career win as a coach at Reading Community Schools. Dr. Davis highlighted Coach Simpson's remarkable dedication and impact on students, emphasizing his influence as an educator and coach extends far beyond wins and losses. Dr. Davis recounted Coach Simpson's impressive coaching journey including leading both boys' and girls' soccer teams to success, earning numerous coaching awards, and even his own standout playing career. Coach Simpson expressed his gratitude for the support from the Board, his family, and the opportunity to impact young athletes. He also discussed the potential for a Junior High soccer program to further strengthen the school's soccer program. Dr. Davis showcased Coach Simpson's enduring commitment to soccer and the positive influence he has had on generations of students and athletes.

Welcome to the District Nurse - Lucy Gruen (10:05)

Dr. Davis also warmly welcomed Lucy Gruen as the new District Nurse for Reading Community Schools. He emphasized the crucial role of a District Nurse in maintaining the health and safety of the students and expressed the school district's excitement about having Lucy join the team. Dr. Davis highlighted Lucy's extensive background, including her nursing career at Cincinnati Children's Hospital and her recent experience as a substitute school nurse in a neighboring district. He also mentioned her dedication to obtaining her school nurse certification through Ashland University. The Board expressed confidence in Lucy's experience, compassion, and dedication, and they look forward to her contributing to the well-being of students and the success of the school district. Lucy was congratulated and officially welcomed to the Reading Community Schools family.

District Report Card - (12:53)

Mark Edwards, Director of Curriculum & Communication, discussed the release of the 2023 District Report Card. A copy of his presentation can be found here. He started by providing a high-level overview of the report card, emphasizing the importance of continuous improvement. He mentioned that the district received a three-star rating out of five and broke down the components that contribute to this rating: achievement, progress, early literacy, graduation, and gap closing. Mark highlighted areas where the district has shown improvement, such as graduation rates and industry-recognized credentials. Mark also acknowledged areas where there is room for improvement, particularly in progress and gap closing, emphasizing the need for intentional efforts to address these challenges. Dr. Davis, the Superintendent, added insights about the significance of subgroup data and the district's focus on student learning and improvement. Mark concluded by stating the district's goal to build sustainable systems to enhance student achievement and success in the future.

BOARD DISCUSSION

BASA Conference (39:57)

Dr. Davis will attend the BASA Superintendent Conference in Columbus on October 3rd and 4th, where Stephen Covey's son will be a keynote speaker. The conference includes various sessions on legislative matters, school improvement, safety, and security.

DISTRICT REPORT

Superintendent Dr. Damon Davis provided a district report; the presentation can be found here. Key highlights are below: \(40:50\)

HB 123

House Bill 123, enacted in 2021, focuses on school security and suicide awareness. The school district is required to provide mental health training for staff every two years. On October 20th, the district will conduct training for staff on their suicide prevention program. In addition, the district implemented a 24/7 anonymous reporting system on its website, enabling parents and students to report concerns anonymously. Dr. Davis also highlighted the development of a threat assessment team and its comprehensive school threat assessment training, which are all components of the HB 123 legislation.

Erin's Law

Erin's Law addresses sexual abuse and dating violence prevention. Dr. Davis explained the curriculum and training requirements for different grade levels, emphasizing the importance of parental consent and opt-out options. More information will be sent out from individual buildings, and if anyone has questions regarding these two laws, please reach out to the school.

LPN Nurse

Dr. Davis expressed gratitude for the efforts to fill the Clinic Nurse Position at the Reading Junior Senior High School. A candidate has been selected, and the nurse will soon be starting.

Blue Devil Hero Award

The update included information about the introduction of the "Blue Devil Hero Award" to recognize staff members who go above and beyond their duties. The recipients will receive special recognition, including a parking spot, a trophy, and an invitation to a Board Meeting.

Camp Kern

Dr. Davis also highlighted the success of the recent Camp Kern trip for sixth graders and the exciting events surrounding homecoming. He acknowledged the dedication of the district's staff and the participation of students in various extracurricular activities.

Upcoming Events

Dr. Davis shared upcoming events, including a District staff lunch, the Reading Historical Society Settlement Day Dinner, College and Career Readiness Day, and a retiree breakfast on October 27th.
